

AT AUCTION.

AN EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE AT THE EXCHANGE TO-DAY.

Numbers of Choice Lots in the Forest Park Neighborhood and Other Portions of the City Bring Low Prices—Fisher & Co.'s Mammoth Auction—The Sale Continues To-Morrow—Prices Obtained and the Purchasers Who Bid Them.

One of the largest sales of real estate that ever took place in St. Louis was commenced at the Real Estate Exchange this morning, under the supervision of Fisher & Co. Judge Lanham auctioneered the property before a very fair attendance, nearly all of whom came on business. The lots put up this morning were nearly all located in the western portion of the city, and were bid for at a pretty lively rate. Although the prices received were not remarkably high, they were good considering the present condition of the real estate market.

The first twenty-five lots catalogued to be sold in the forenoon were disposed of at the allotted time without any hitch in the proceedings, and very little cessation in the bidding. Nearly all of the real estate men in town dropped in some time during the day and expressed themselves very well satisfied with the spirit taken by real estate in the last few days. Nearly all the purchases were made by real estate men buying either for themselves or for others. The lots sold were situated on Laclede, Boyle, Audubon, St. Charles and Lindell avenues, Forest Park, Locust, Deacon, Pine, Morgan and Locust streets, and Benton place.

Mr. Fisher said at the opening of the sale that the property was sold at a price that was as high as the market, and that he was not at all disappointed in the result. He said that he had determined to sell to the highest bona-fide bidder.

BEFORE JUDGE NOONAN.

The Gallaghers Keappery—Court To-Day—Other Cases Disposed Of.

The Gallaghers were again in court this morning. It will be remembered that Daniel J. Gallagher, a marble polisher, was fined $100 by Judge Cady for annoying his wife, Harry Ann Gallagher, who is an inmate of a respectable house on Chestnut, west of Twentieth street. This morning the husband had the wife before Judge Noonan charged with adultery. He claimed she would not and could not live with the man, and alleged that the life she was leading would be agreeable to her husband if she would allow him to share her income. Judge Noonan thought the husband was displaying considerable malice and was not better than the woman, and a volte-face was entered in the case.

Annie Harding, a woman who came here from Kentucky, was up on a charge of grand larceny. The testimony showed that while she was in the room of P. C. Brown at No. 103 North Twentieth street, on September 19, $50 was stolen from him. The court sentenced her to fifteen days in the city jail.

Scott Vane pleaded guilty to the larceny of a watch and a ring, and was sentenced to six months in the work-house. One summer he had been in the open door of Frank Williams' house, No. 1015 North Seventh street, and had stolen a watch and a ring.

Fred Heuchamp, while intoxicated, he claims, stole a value and contents from his room at No. 18 South Eighth street. He was sentenced to four months in the city jail.

Joseph Collins and Peter Tandy, two negroes, were held for the grand jury in $1,000 bond each to answer to a charge of burglarizing Adolph J. Huebel's place, No. 1234 North Third street, and stealing a quantity of cigars. The burglary was traced to them through some marked coins which were among the missing ones.

Abraham Brown got fifteen days in jail for stealing a watch and a ring from Frank O'Shaughnessy. Charles Doherty was sentenced to six months in the city jail for an assault and battery on Mary Bollenbach of 3308 Deland street.

Ohio on his Western trip.

The unprecedented success of the St.
Louis Exposition must make up for the diminished prestige of the Browns.

Dr. McCLYNN's attempt to suppress the Catholic Church is bringing its expected harvest of discomfiture and humiliation.

The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH next Sunday will have no magazine articles and the other papers will have no snake stories.

A MUNICIPAL election is held in Baltimore to-day. If the activity of dead votes is duly repressed, it is probable that the Gorman ring will be overthrown.

If the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH is carrying too much wind it is because it has taken a great deal of that article out of the sails of its local contemporaries.

FORAKER and SHERMAN have dissolved their mutual back-scratching association.
Their rival booms are getting too big to be accommodated within the confines of a single State.

AFTER "The Earth Trembled," the Sunday Globe-Democrat might give us a new serial based on the popularity of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, and entitled,
"The Editor Tumbled."

The New York Republicans have been chuckling over DENIS KEARNEY'S support of the Democratic ticket; and now the Democrats are pointing with pride to Mr. BLAINE'S published indorsement of Col. GRANT.

The American public cannot be lashed into excitement over a joint debate between Mr. HENRY GEORGE and his Socialistic opponents. The relative merits of their respective theories cannot concern a people who will always reject both.

A distinguished fellow-citizen, L. U. is, is announced for a lecture entitled "The Handwriting on the Wall."
"do not know how the eloquent gentleman will interpret the handwriting, but a lecture will be incomplete if he fails to ad the decree which says that the snake-story must go.

The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH will prove boon not only to its readers but to the readers of its Sunday morning competitors. Already symptoms of improvements in our slow-going contemporaries are manifest, and we are sanguine enough to anticipate a speedy banishment of the snake story from Sunday morning journalism.

CLOSELY following the example of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, the Philadelphia Ledger now has a special leased telegraph wire tapping the New York World office. We trust that this improvement, which has been picturesquely described as "a sub-section of a cyclone from New York," will work as well in Philadelphia as it certainly has done in St. Louis.

CONGRESSMAN KELLY of Pennsylvania, in talking about the surplus, says that the object to be attained is a reduction of the revenue. This statement is insufficient and misleading. The people demand a reduction of the revenue that shall involve a reduction of taxes. The revenue would be reduced by increasing taxation if a prohibitory duty were put on imports now sold in this country in spite of the war tariff. To reduce the revenue by reducing and equalizing customs duties would be to lessen taxation in accordance with the demand of a majority of the people. But "Pig-iron" KELLY represents the war tariff protectionists of Pennsylvania, and his deliverances on the tariff question should be taken with a plentiful sprinkle of salt.

THE CONTEST IN NEW YORK.

"If the Republican party in this city is on the side of good local government, and in favor of sustaining the vigorous prosecution of hoodlums and bribers, it will nominate Mr. NICOLL for District Attorney and Mr. MARTINE for Judge of the General Sessions Court," said the New York World on Monday. On Tuesday they nominated a full county ticket, and by a vote of 208 to 39 included the two Democrats suggested by the World. This action sharply defines the distinct issue for one of the most interesting and important contests that ever took place in that great city. The firmness with which District-Attorney MARTINE resisted a tremendous pressure from Tammany and the County Democracy, and the vigor, persistence and success with which he and his assistant, Mr. DE LANCY NICOLL, prosecuted the hoodie Aldermen and their briber, JACOB SHARP, brought out a strong popular demand for the promotion of MARTINE to the bench and of NICOLL to the position of District Attorney. The influences arrayed against such prosecutions saw that their only hope lay in yielding to the demand so far as the promotion of MARTINE to the bench was concerned, and thus making him pull through a ticket with a bad nomination for District Attorney. So NICOLL was thrown over and Col. J. R. FELLOWS was nominated for District Attorney on the Democratic ticket with MARTINE, JACOB SHARP's attorney making the nominating speech.
Col. FELLOWS is a brilliant, erratic man, loose in money matters, always more or less under the thumb of editors, and at a critical stage of the prosecutions he flunked as one of MARTINE's assistants. The World opposes him as one whose character, antecedents and associations are no guarantee of the firmness and aggressive honesty required at the head of the New York District Attorney's office, and distinctly proclaims the fight for NICOLL against FELLOWS as one which should array the people, regardless of party, for the independent candidate, and against the dictation of the dominant party organization committed to the protection and service of the hoodlums. It needs no ghost to tell us on which side of this contest stand the fugitives in Canada, the convicts in Sing Sing and Convict SHARP, who is kept out of Sing Sing by scandalous stays of execution.

THE STATE GRANGE PLATFORM.

The Missouri State Grange has adopted a platform containing some propositions which we think all producers and taxpayers should support persistently at the ballot-box. Among these is a graduated income tax; a more stringent regulation of the dealings in agricultural product futures; the restriction of the profits of common carriers to net earnings that represent a reasonable percentage of the actual cost of the property, and the prohibition of landholding by railroads for other than strict railroad purposes. But the proposed stopping of all railroad trains, other than passenger or wrecking trains, on the Christian Sabbath is open to question, and we confess our inability to comprehend what the Grange means by instructing its members "to vote for no candidate who is not pledged to protect the agricultural industries of the State and "nation, and to oppose a free trade policy "whereby the labor of this country is "compelled to compete with the world." If this means support of the present tariff, it means support of a policy which not only fails to protect agricultural labor and products from competition with the world, but subjects them to heavy and unjust taxation for the support of monopolies.

A RICHMOND, Va., correspondent of a bloody-shirt contemporary makes several sensational announcements concerning the inauguration of the Lee monument in that city. He says that "all the flags, "whether Confederate or United States, "and lithographs of LEE and JEFFERSON "Davis, as well as the Lee, Southern "crosses, and like paraphernalia which is "being used, were made in New York or "Pennsylvania, and one ex-Union soldier "was peddling Lee medals." The follow"ing good news no comment: "The pro"posed public marriage on the fair "grounds seems to shock the Virginia "citizens greatly." The Virgin"ians are now loyal citizens of the Union "and should not carry too much amoire "propre.

The enthusiastic homage which the Southern people are ready to pay to the name and presence of JEFFERSON DAVIS doubtless owes much of its fervor to the malevolent and unjust attempt to make him the scape-goat for a whole people.

They justly resent any disposition to make him the vicarious sufferer for deeds for which the whole South was as responsible as he. His promotion to conspicuous leadership was due to the possession of splendid and commanding abilities; and it is absurd to make the contention that he acted a guiltier part than the humblest private who bore a Confederate musket.

The Kansas City Journal invites the Duke of Marlborough to the mouth of the Kaw, and then adds: "Of course, we can "hardly agree to introduce him to Kansas "City society, but our business men will be "pleased to give him every possible assist"ance in solving the transportation problem for London." When the Duke receives a social snub from Kansas City, what will become of his Newport certificate of respectability?

THE arrival in our office of a marked copy of the La Plata Home Press containing words of solace for the FRANCIS Gubernatorial boom awakens a suspicion that our Mayor is starting a literary Bureau. This is both previous and superfluous. An off-year October boom is always liable to blight before the coming of spring, and a genuine boom has no more need of a literary Bureau than a cat has of two tails.

IF it is true, as reported, that Mr.
BLAINE violently attacked the Irish at a London dinner party, it will be welcome news to the anti-Blaine Republican crow-deters of 1888, who are anxious to escape the infliction of a similar repast in 1888. If Mr. BLAINE should lose his hold on the Irish, it would greatly lessen his chance of a renomination.

It will take a long time to reconcile the people of this country to the holding of national nominating conventions in Washington, the barracks of the grand army of office-holding henchmen. Least of all could the party of the administration afford to brave the scandal of a re-nomination procured under such auspices.

PRINCE FERDINAND has not created a diplomatic disturbance for some time, but he is drawing his salary and making the best of a rickety throne. The attempt of the czar to annihilate him with an imperial frown must now be regarded as a failure.

The Salvation Army of New York is dying out and may soon find itself in the hands of a receiver. The people of this country do not believe in military establishments in times of peace.

"O, papa, tell me is it true And did St. Patrick really show Them from his book and brakes?"

"Yes, yes, my child, the story's true, As told of old St. Pat.
He banished all the snakes into The poor Globe-Democrat."

The Cyclone in Journalism.

From the Globe-Democrat.
"Trusts" are the order of the day just now.
If a Wind Trust should be started in New York the World of that city would take all the stock.

METROPOLITAN PRESS.

What the Editors of the New York Journals
Are Saying This Morning.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
New York, October 26.—The World says: "The rumors current at Paris concerning the resignation of President Grevy appear to be well founded. The Chamber of Deputies was reopened yesterday, and without delay a motion was put forward demanding urgency for the discussion of the Wilson-Caffery scandal.
The Ministers opposed this motion, and were defeated by a majority of almost 200 votes."

The Sun says: "The New York Republicans must be getting hard up. They have imported Mexican coyotes from Ohio, and he has broken out in Lockport."

The Times says: "On the eve of the mu-

THE exclusion of little negroes from the

THE Drabell bill will leave the manage-the machine politicians unless the citizens step in and take it away from them.

THE Massachusetts Republican papers are beginning to despair of success, but they have a forlorn hope in BEN BUTLER's resolution to support the Democratic ticket.

A DILIGENT search through the columns results is the established fact that the bloody shirt gang are still fools, fanatics

MR. BLAINE advises the Irish everywhere to support GLADSTONE. This is good advice and as safe as advising them to keep out of the fire. MR. BLAINE's apprecia-robust as ever.

THE Savannah people are going to build a monument to SERGT. JASPER, who distinguished himself in the Revolutionary war.
This proposal to honor the memory of another rebel, coming so soon after the Jeff Davis reception at Macon, may throw the bloody shirt crowd into an epileptic fit.

ANOTHER wrecking of ROBINSON'S circus train after it had emerged in a crippled condition from a conflict with the dangers of MR. GOULD'S St. Louis Union Depot is no proof that there are more dangerous railroad points than the depot aforesaid. It only proves that the train was too badly crippled before to make the rest of the journey in safety.

THE heavy and brass-mounted editor of the New York Saratogian wants to go outh and demolish everybody that exhibits a Confederate flag. When he returns from his projected tour of annihilation he will probably do to exhibit as an anatomical specimen. Perhaps this red-eyed journalist could tame his man-eating frenzy by drinking the Congress water that flows hard by his sanctum.

TAXING LABOR.

"The proper idea is to tax property and exempt labor, because if a man has nothing but his labor it is taking from him his very life-blood," said ex-Senator TURNER in a speech the other day.

Remembering that taxes on consumption are taxes on labor, are paid chiefly by the toiling masses, and are the only practical devices for shifting the burden of taxes from property to labor, let us see how our present tariff stands the test of the TURNER axiom.

That tariff not only taxes on more than 4,000 articles, but taxes most heavily those of prime necessity in common use.
The duty on secured clothing-wool is 119 per cent; on cleaned rice, 112 per cent; on common window-glass, 100 per cent; on sugar, 91 per cent; on common wool cloth not costing over 61 cents abroad, and on other woollen manufactures not costing over 80 cents per pound abroad, 91 per cent; on unleached rice, 71 per cent; on blankets costing 25 cents a pound, 73 per cent; on common flannels, from 70 to 75 per cent; on common woolen hosiery, 70 per cent; on spool thread, 55 per cent, and so on through a list of 150 articles of necessity in common use, all of which are either excluded by the high rate of duty, or the consumers of which pay on them a tax in no case less than 50 per cent of the cost abroad. Many of the 4,000 taxed articles are raw materials entering into our manufactures, the enhanced cost of which is paid by the consumer.

It is claimed that the heavy duty on many articles is only nominally a tax, because it excludes them and yields no revenue to the Government. But the tax is collected from consumers all the same by manufacturing pools which take advantage of excluded competition to advance the percentage of duty to their selling prices.

In this way not only does this tariff collect from consumers of necessary articles $100,000,000 a year more than the Government needs, but it enables manufacturing corporations united in monopoly combinations to collect from the labor of this country about four times as much of sheer down-right taxation as is collected for the Government.

How much of the enormous taxation thus collected from labor is paid back in the form of wage increase due to tariff protection? The census statistics of 1880 show that the total of wages paid by our manufactures was but 18 per cent of the value of their product. A protective tariff of 18 per cent would therefore cover the whole cost of the labor employed in our manufactures. But with taxes of from 50 to 150 per cent laid on what labor consumes of the manufactured articles, anybody can see that while labor pays the increased value and gets back only 18 per cent of it, capital retains the remainder. How much labor is benefited by that sort of division was seen a few years ago when this whole country was filled with unemployed and half-starved laborers under this same tariff.

THE BODILERS' CANDIDATE.

The objection to COL. FELLOWS for District-Attorney in New York is not that he is a poor man. He is a brilliant attorney who has been in receipt of a large income from fees and salaries ever since BOSS TWEED took him up and began to use him in New York politics. He stood by TWEED and denounced the "persecutors" of that worthy when SAMUEL J. TILDEN and CHARLES O'CONNOR were the foremost of the alleged "persecutors." The objection to COL. FELLOWS is that, no matter how ample his income may be, he is never satisfied with it, and not only spends it all, but habitually incurs pecuniary obligations which he cannot meet; that he in fact belongs to that very type of loose respectability which the bodil-ers want at the head of the District-Attorney's office in New York.
It is notorious that all the influences arrayed against the prosecution of the Broadway bribery cases worked openly for his nomination and that JACOB SHARP's attorney made the nomination speech in the convention. He had been one of District-Attorney MARTINE's subordinate assistants, but all he did against SHARP, against the bribed Aldermen who were sent to Sing Sing and against those who fled to Canada did not prevent their friends from uniting on FELLOWS. They dared not oppose the nomination of MAR-TINE for Judge, but they wanted FELLOWS, not NICOLL to succeed MARTINE, and they regarded the nomination of the latter for Judge as necessary to pull FELLOWS through as the nominee for District-Attorney. A man who is reckless and loose in money matters is always the choice of bodil-ers for such a position. They can put hooks in his flesh and "work him" even when at bottom he is not a corrupt man.

The Planets in November.

From the Providence Journal.
The planetary record for November is full of interest. Venus arrayed in glorious garments adorns the morning sky. Saturn hovers near the beautiful cluster Praesepe, and is visible nearly all night. Jupiter, having been invisible for some time, now shines near the close of the month. Mars appears in the early hours of the morning, and the other planets are visible with the telescope.

A Strange Danger.

From the Boston Herald.

It seems almost like a return to the old laws against witchcraft when we read of the strict legal enactments which the European countries have already deemed it necessary to make concerning hypnotism. The reality of that strange mental and physical condition having been scientifically established, cases of abuse have become frequent enough to cause stringent legislation against it in France and Denmark. In France public exhibitions of hypnotism, or mesmerism, as it is more familiarly known, have been prohibited, and severe penalties have been enacted against the hypnotist of one person by another, except the operator be a physician, and then only with the written consent of the subject, and in the presence of another physician. The fact that, under the European laws, a hypnotist is controlled by "one person" one may be made a passive instrument in the hands of another, absolutely unconscious and doing whatever the operator may will, is the reason for this.
European repeated scientific experiments have proven that a person may thus be made unconsciously to commit any manner of crime, so that one may be punished for an act of which he is morally innocent, while the real criminal remains secure. The hypnotized subject might even be made to confess to a crime after his deed, and thus all possibility of tracing its origin be removed.

Oglethys and the Anarchists.

From the Chicago Tribune.
The responsibility now resting upon the Governor of Illinois is terrible indeed, but never did responsibility rest upon a daughter head or a braver heart. Gov. Oglethys is every inch a man, and whichever way he decides it, the people may be sure that he will be controlled by the largest and purest motives. No reflecting mind can survey the issue of life or death involved, without the most serious and painful hesitancy. It is best for society that these men shall die, and will the capital punisher inflict accomplish its purpose, or shall their blood wash out their crimes in the estimation of wicked and feeble followers and imitators, making martyrs of them and proving the seed of their evil deeds shall be lowered and the
